so some good horses for lively.

AL. W. PEDIGO.

A Winchester bride made her first effort at cooking one day last week, and a pie was the result of her effort. "I'm afraid" she said to her loving hubby,

"I have left something out that it is not very good." He took a bite and said to his wife, "No there is nothing on earth you could leave out that would make a pie taste like that; it's something you've put in it."

There will be a meeting of the officers of the Christian Church after praying Wednesday night (tomorrow) evening to take up the work of the church under its new ministry. The members of the church will be invited to take part in the consideration of matters to be taken up and a full attendance is desired.

Rev. G. W. Perryman, of Paduch, will preach at Liberty church, Russell county, next Sunday, forenoon and evening.

On account of this meeting Edward H. Baugh will preach at Pleasant Hill the 4th Sunday. Every body invited to attend these services.

The wife of Mr. W. L. Stotts died last Monday Morning. The end came at the residence of her son, Mr. and DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The friends of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham won an overwhelming victory at the Democratic State Convention.

Gov. Beckham's friends organized eight of the eleven district conventions and are in absolute control of the party organization. They elected the Governor chairman of the convention over Judge Frank Park having been selected by the anti-administration leaders after the withdrawal of Ben Johnson. Judge Lewis McQuinn was chairman of the State Central and Executive Committee. Gov.

Beckham, Senators Blackburn and McCrack and Congressman Ollie

James were chosen delegates from the State-at-large.

The Committee on resolutions voted down a motion to report a resolution instructing for Parker. Mr. Bryan is not to lose the preamble to the resolution to satisfy a minority of the convention, who threatened to vote to present a minority report favoring the Kansas City platform. The delegates to the National Convention is required to vote as a unit, but goes uninstructed.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Democratic party of Kentucky, in convention assembled, affirming its faith in and adherence to the great principles of the Democratic platform as expounded by Jefferson, hereby affirmed by Jackson and affixed by Bryan, adopts the following resolutions:

We condemn the oppressive, unnecessary and unjust system of Federal taxation established and maintained by Republicans, and we demand a revision of existing tariff laws in a conservative spirit of fairness and justice.

We condemn the appalling increase in the expenditure of the Federal Government under Republican rule.

We condemn the flagrant encroachment on the constitutional powers of Congress.

We condemn the colossal crime of country known as trusts.

We demand "a change of system—a change of administration—a change of party—that we may have a change of measures and men."

The scandals and corruptions in the Post Office Department and the refusal of Republicans to permit any investigation are suggestive of hidden or concealed corruption. We are, therefore in favor of a thorough investigation of all the departments at Washington in order that fraud and dishonesty may be discovered and punished, and a pure and honorable and efficient administration of public affairs secured.

We declare that the refusal of the Governor of Indiana to surrender on the requisition of the Governor of Kentucky the persons of William S.

Taylor and Charles Finley, fugitives from justice, charged with complice in the murder of Gen. William Goebel, is reprehensible, unprecedented and illegal, and deserves the severest condemnation of all lovers of law

A GOOD WAY TO FINANCE AND

BUILD A RAILROAD.

Below we reprint an article from the Manufacturers' Record which indirectly shows one good way to finance a railroad.

Mr. W. H. Page, of Ansted, W. Va., president of the Deepwater and Tidewater railways, who are to make a new coal road from the Kanawha river through the lower part of West Virginia and across the State of Virginia to Hampton Roads, telegraphs the Manufacturers' Record that 200 men are now engaged on the construction of the Deepwater Railway, which is the West Virginia end of the plan, and that the total length of the line in tidewater will be 450 miles. The estimates of cost are not yet complete.

Major Page recently visited Roanoke, Va., on business connected with his road, and a report from that city quotes him as saying that payment is being made for all rights of way as the road goes along, and there are no bonds or stock on the market. It will take some time to have all the estimates worked up. They are based on the preliminary surveys, but work is progressing as rapidly as possible with safety. There are no engineering difficulties in the way. There will be 55 miles of track completed in West Virginia by January 1 next. No serious financial problem is involved in is in operation. To handle the car traffic proposed a grade larger than any other line is desired and an ideal line has been found. The road can possibly be completed within two years from the date of breaking ground."

This shows that capital will insure any and build railroad, and the material the shipping of which will increase the returns on the investment. It reminds us that the best assets of the Columbia and Lebanon Railway Company is in the abundant resources of this country, which, if properly brought to the attention of capitalists, will go a long way for more than three-fourths of the way to induce capital to invest. Add to this the substantial expression of confidence shown by the people and the assurance of friend-ness to the road of the people along the line which a subscription of $500 of stock will add, and the proposed road is assured.

Delivered by Mr. W. K. Adams, of Columbia, and it was one of the finest Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

WED JUNE 15, 1904.

The Democratic State Convention held in Louisville last week was one of the most harmonious gatherings ever witnessed in the metropolis of this Commonwealth, notwithstanding a spirited struggle was predicted. The attendance was large and every delegate conducted himself with such decorum as would meet the approval of a Sunday-school or that would measure up to the demands of a gathering of the most intelligent citizens of any State. The convention was called to order by Chairman Allie W. Young, who attempted to briefly defend his record, but devoted himself mainly to a denunciation of the Courier-Journal and Times. Gov. J. C. W. Beckham was elected temporary chairman, over Judge Frank Peake, the vote standing 817 to 322. This indicated that the opposition to the Governor was not so strong as had been claimed by the leaders in opposition to the administration. The convention selected Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Senators Blackburn and McCreary and Congressman Ollie James, as delegates at large, a compliment to these gentlemen well deserving and a safeguard to the Democracy of the State. The representatives of Kentucky go uninstructed, under the unit rule, but anti-Hearst. In reorganizing the committees that so much affect the welfare of the party some good and wholesome changes were made, the most important being the Chairman of the State Central and Executive Committees. Mr. Allie W. Young has held this position since 1899, but its honors and responsibilities now rest on Mr. Lewis McDowell, of Bowling Green, a Democrat of the trust make up, and a lawyer of ability whose record for fairness so well fits him for the weighty duties of party work. Mr. James Garnett, Jr., of Columbia, was re-elected a member of the State Central Committee for this district an honor well and justly placed and manifests the confidence reposed in him as a Democrat, able and willing to meet the requirements of this responsible position. The Eleventh district besides selecting Jas. Garnett, Jr., as a member of the State Central Committee, made elections as follows: Delegates to the national convention, Hon. John W. Collier, of Pulaski, and Dr. A. Gatliff, of Whitley. Alternates, Wm. Sampson, of Harlan and J. J. Grissom, of Monroe. Elector, R. C. Ford, of Bell. Mr. Gordon Montgomery, of this place, was chosen as a member of the Committee on credentials, and Mr. Life Sharp, of Liberty, was selected to act with the committee on rules. Capt. J. F. Horn was elected a member of the State Executive Committee and the following gentlemen were chosen as State electors: Claud Thomas, of Bourbon, L. H. Carter, of Anderson. Assistants, Harry Sommers, of Harding; M. J. Howard, of Kenton.

The Indiana State Sentinel has the following: "The movement to make Judge Parker the Democratic Presidential nominee started with the Democratic masses—not with the politicians. His boom has grown in strength and vigor, because the masses of Democratic voters want him. This demand is irrefragable. Nearly all the leading politicians opposed him until they heard from the people. The voice of the masses is so strong for him that politicians are flocking to his standard. Only a few of the big ones now stand out. The latest to fall into line is ex-President Cleveland. A few weeks ago he was for Judge Gray or Richard Olney. He now sees the masses are for Parker and he gets on the bandwagon. Gorman and Bryan should also now fall into line. The Parker nomination is a certainty."

The editor of the Casey County News, our friend and neighbor, criticized one of our editorial's of week before last, and commented on its grammatical and typographical defects. We have no inclination to offer an excuse, but will state that the errors to which he referred were corrected in the same issue on the first page. We have made mistakes all along, and will likely make more. We are interested in advancing this part of the State and have no time nor space to use on anything smaller or weaker than the News. Just now the Columbia and Lebanon Interurban railroad is paramount.

O. O. Stealey, the Courier-Journal's Washington correspondent, writes as follows concerning the Presidential contest: "The situation at this time is decidedly mixed; in fact, all up in the air; Cleveland is in the bush, Parker on the bench and Hearst, moaning over his setback in Colorado and Utah, for to Hearst the loss of these two States which he had so lovingly nursed was the unkindest cut of all. He did not mind what they did to him in Ohio and Indiana, but to enter it were into the bosom of his own family and snatch from his own fireside two of his cherished children was an act that bows down his head with the weight of its own woe."

It is now evident that no candidate will have a cinch on the Democratic nomination for the Presidency when the National Convention meets at St. Louis the 6th of July. Of the 728 delegates so far chosen, 374 are uninstructed. In instructed votes Judge Parker, of New York, leads with 178. This is far from being sufficient to nominate, and as above stated, there is no telling what will be the outcome. Parker is evidently the choice of the Kentucky delegation selected at Louisville, and in our judgment he will receive the twenty-six votes of this State.

It was the opinion of nearly every speaker who addressed the State Democratic Convention that Mr. Bryan would not bolt the action of the St. Louis convention it matters not who received the nomination, and that the gentleman chosen as the Presidential candidate would be elected. Judge Parker was decidedly the favorite, but every utterance went to show that the Democrats of Kentucky would be satisfied with any candidate put out by the St. Louis convention.

Lieut. Governor Bill Thorne in speaking to the State Convention said: "If the Democrats of Kentucky, want Parker, I am for Parker; if they want Gorman, I am for Gorman; if they want Olney, I am for Olney; Why, I would vote for Cleveland if he was nominated." "What about Hearst?" cried a voice in the assembly. "There has been too much money already spent upon him," said the speaker.

In the Louisville Democratic State Convention the Adair county delegation got every thing they went after, and was on the winning side upon every proposition that came before the convention.

The platform adopted by the Democratic State Convention is published elsewhere in this paper. It is not lengthy, but contains principles that every right thinking man should endorse. Read it.

Ninety-seven of the 131 bills adopted by the last General Assembly became laws in effect last Monday. Many of these measures carry appointments to be made by the Governor.

Of the 728 delegates so far chosen to the National Democratic Convention, 374 are uninstructed. Those instructed are, for Parker, 178; Hearst, 110; Olney, 32; Wall, 26; Gray, 6.

At a show in a tent at Barboursville a brace broke under the elevated seats and thirty people were injured, one probably fatal.

It is impossible to tell what the future will bring forth, but to us it looks like Senators Blackburn and McCreary and Congressman Dave Smith have made the mistake of their lives.

A large number of the Kentucky editors are taking in the World's Fair this week.

The war news from the East is a little dull. No battles reported for several days.

This is the leading colored school of Kentucky and was established about 1870. King has been a student since his childhood and is well known to all of his old friends. He has already secured $4,000 of the meeting adjourned with every body feeling that the road will be built.

The farming element of Adair county should bear in mind that an interurban railroad to this place would benefit them more than any other class of people. It is a matter of impossibility to get more acres of ground in Adair county and it is an admitted fact that the road will greatly enhance the population throughout the county. People will want land to cultivate and the demand for the higher the price of stock. There is not a farm in Adair county but it will be more than doubly enhanced in value. Now, the farmer who has a small piece of land, a few acres, and a few head of cattle, can get a much better price for his produce than he can now. The opportunity to increase wealth will be many times greater for the farmer than the individual merchant who lives in Columbia or other towns in the county. It will be an easy matter to establish more stores to serve the trade, but the number of acres of land remain the same, and as above stated, an increased population enhances farm value. Every farmer who should take stock in the enterprise.

People of Adair, it is time for us all to pull together as one man against the building of the railroad. You are not asked to give, but to invest, and there is every evidence to believe that this investment will bring you good interest. You can figure the change to come to this section of the State. The increased value of farms, of timber and all kinds of products ought to arouse everybody. If you think the road will be built without your aid you may find to your sorrow that indifference to such propositions is the costliest investment you ever made. We could point to many counties and numerous towns shut out from cultural conveniences and developments by such methods. The opportunity of a life time, a chance to bring about such conditions as will result in a wonderful development of our country and offers you a safe, profitable investment for a part of your money. This proposition must be closed before long. Every man should realize its tremendous importance to this section.

PREFERRED STOCK.

The question has been asked repeatedly by parties unfamiliar with the way in which corporations acquire stock, "what is preferred stock?"

In case of large undertakings where the money is paid before the stock is called common stock, an arduous labor is required, it is not fair that the persons who take the initial risk should have the first and best chance to realize their investments. It is usual, therefore, and the laws of the several states make it legitimate, to issue to such investors special shares of stock which are to be paid before the common stock is called, and are called common stock, an arduous labor is required, it is not fair that the persons who take the initial risk should have the first and best chance to realize their investments.
